

DISTRICT 27-5A
2022-2023 BASEBALL ORGANIZATIONAL PLAN
October 11, 2022 - APPROVED

Alamo Heights - Brackenridge — Burbank – Edison – Highlands – Houston –
Jefferson- Lanier - MacArthur

I. DETERMINING DISTRICT REPRESENTATIVES

- A. The district champion shall be determined by playing double round schedule.
 - 1. The team with the best overall win/loss will be district champion.
 - 2. The team with the next best win/loss record will be the 2nd place district representative.
 - 3. The team with the next best win/loss record will be the 3rd place district representative.
 - 4. The team with the next best win/loss record will be the 4th placed district representative.

- B. In the event two or more teams tie for the district championship, the following format will be used to determine the first place, second place, third place, and fourth place teams.
 - 1. If two teams tie for the district championship they will be co-champions.
 - a. If one team has won both mutual games that team will be declared the first place team and the other team will be the second place team.
 - b. If two teams split mutual games and tie for first place, there will be a one game play-off, the winner of which will be the first place seed, and the other team will be the second place seed. The same format will apply to determine second, third, and fourth place.
 - 2. If three or more teams tie for the district championship, the following format will be used to determine the first place, second place, and third place teams.
 - a. If three teams are tied for the district championship they will be tri-champions:
 - (1) If one team has defeated the other two in all mutual games, that team shall be declared the first place seed. The remaining two teams will revert to a two-team tie breaker.

- (2) If one team has won more mutual games between the teams involved in the three-way tie, then team with the best record against the other two teams will be higher seed. The two remaining teams will revert to the two-way tiebreaker.
- (3) If the records of the three teams in play against each other are tied, the teams will draw for the bye and tournament play will determine the first and second place seed.

EXAMPLE:

Team A plays Team B, the winner A then plays Team C. If Team A beats Team C, Team A is the first place team and Teams B and C will revert to a two-team tie breaker. . If Team A beats Team B and Team C beats Team A, then Team C is the first place team and Team A is the second place team

- b. If four or more teams tie but one or more teams have a better record, then the format for a three-way tie will be used.
 - c. If four or more teams tie for the district championship and all records in mutual games are tied, the order of play shall be determined by a draw. The two winners in the first game play for first and second place, with the winner being first. The two losers of the first games would play for third place. The same format will apply for second, third, and fourth place positions.
 - d. The winner of the final game will be the first place seed and the loser of the final game will be the second place seed.
- C. The date, site, and time of the tournament games and play-off games will be determined by the teams involved in accordance with the U.I.L. Constitution and Contest Rules.
 - D. Teams involved in play-off tournaments and games to determine district winner and runner-up will determine admission prices and will split all receipts and expenses.
 - E. These provisions for determining the district winner and runner-up will be followed to determine the runner-up in the event a district champion has been determined and there is a tie or ties for runner-up.
 - F Anytime a tie occurs, it can be determined by a coin toss if mutually agreed upon by all parties.

II. COMPLETION OF POSTPONED GAMES

- A. Games, which are called prior to the completion of seven innings, or extra innings if the game is tied, will be continued from the point of suspension. If the home site is not available, the game will be played at the visitor's site. If that site is not available, the game will be moved to a neutral site.

- B. Postponed and incomplete games shall be played, or replayed, on the next open date (Saturday included) that the home field is playable, provided that no school, except for the last week of the schedule, shall be required to play more than three district games per week. The initiative, relating to decisions concerning such games, shall rest with the home team school. The same rule will apply for schools that have more than one such game.
